

Dear Parent,

North Point Youth Ministries would like to thank you for trusting us with your child. We believe that our children are the greatest gift from God and therefore deserve our most sincere attention.

There are two principles we would like to teach your child. These, we believe are essential to living a successful and fulfilled life. The first is love, which we define as “ thinking of another person’s well-being as more important than your own”, and the second is discipline, which we define as “focusing your mind on a goal until it is achieved”.

We believe that nowhere in history is this more fully displayed than in the person of Jesus. He was focused on His mission, to save us from our sins, and He loved us so much that He died for us.

We do not see a child but a future lawyer, doctor, teacher, politician, pastor – a future leader of our community.

North Point Youth ministries hope to instill these essential qualities in your child through the game of basketball. Your child will be given a blank report card to be filled in by the parent, teacher and pastor each week. Bad report cards will result in extra laps, time out in practice and/or game suspension.

In order to accomplish this mission we desperately need your help in many areas. Please select from the categories below the areas where you would be able to help.

I know how much your child means to you but I think you would be surprised at how much we care about him/her. There are so many obstacles to accomplishing our goal that at times we feel like giving up but God has not left that option open to us. Your child is too precious and the stake is too great. We must press on!
